

MANAGEMENT

Chang-Hyeok, Kang
CEO

Hanryu Holdings CEO Kang, Chang-Hyeok obtained his master's degree in tax and law from Korea University. He has been successfully leading the business of renowned Korean companies by fulfilling his role as a tax expert and corporate operation consultant, and as a representative of a management corporate consulting firm.

Based on the management expertise and know-how essential for corporate management, he has been directing the company's business strategies to create organic synergy among its diverse business areas and expand value.

David Gregg
Chief Manager

Mr. Gregg is a social enterprise strategist, with experience in dealing with private investors, and developing enterprise projects. He is also a seasoned marketing executive across all business sectors, including mid-market and enterprise entities.

Mr. Gregg studied Communications at Brigham Young University in Idaho. He has extensive experience in cultural exchanges, travel, and doing business in Asia.

Dae-Hwan, Son
COO

After graduating from the Department of Public Administration of Songwon University, Director Son, Dae-Hwan served as the vice president of an IT KOSDAQ listed company. Thereafter, he oversaw business and artist management at large Korean entertainment companies including StarM Entertainment and Wellmade Yedang.

He is an established expert in the IT and entertainment industry and is at the center of services that connect platforms, artists, and content based on the wide infrastructure across the entertainment industry.

Dong-Hoon, Park
CMO

Director Park, Dong-Hoon has served as the CEO of a marketing agency and has effectively led new businesses and brands of established clients by building media plans and marketing strategies for various business areas.

By integrating his experience of successfully launching an E-commerce platform in Korea, he is leading FANTOO's commerce sectors and overall marketing strategy.

Jung-Gil, Kim
CTO

Jeong-gil, Kim is a veteran who pioneered the IT industry as the first-generation developer in Korea. He has been activity serving as a full-stack developer in software and games aspects, in charge of programming and developments from planning to publishing. He is well-experienced in the launch of global services, leading the 15 million users loved game development project of Metin, launched by Gameforge.

Based on Kim's worldwide experiences in leading and launching various services development projects, he is improving advancement and diversification of FANTOO as the chief technology officer of Hanryu Holdings.

Ju-Hyun, Shin
CFO

CFO JuHyun, Shin had graduated SoHae University and has been working as a corporate operation director who is in charge of the company's overall finance and accounting by taking a position on the company's management and financial strategy establishment and money flow. He was worked in a domestic listed company with sales of USD 33 million and experienced listing-related works, such as managing IFRS financial statements and responding to audits.

For the successful future business direction, Mr. Shin is working as a Chief Financial Officer based on 25 years of experience, by reviewing the flow of money and Hanryu Holdings' business strategies, including business plans, performance management, finance, and risk management.